

Water Chestnut

Environment of water chest nut, need pond with clay soil and hot weather conditions ( 30celsius +)

Picking patch of soil

Clay penetrated with Nuts

Product

Field is surrounded by Taro plants

Water Nut on Taro leaf

Green plant sprayed by Herbagreen

Plant and its Value ( Water Chest Nut)

Complete plant

Nut attached to root ending

Harvested Nuts

Harvest day

Sept. 2010

- Plant is a high value crop, used for deserts
- Growth cycle is 6 month and harvested only once per year
- The plant need a lot of light and hot weather condition
- Harvested Water Nut can be stored of up to 1 year in pond water